PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Public-service researcher and operations professional with experience in justice, policy, teaching, campaigns, and mixed-methods research. Turns complex information into usable procedures, datasets, and recommendations.

EXPERIENCE

GEORGETOWN PRISONS & JUSTICE INITIATIVE | Washington, D.C.

Operations & Reentry Assistant | Jan – Aug 2026 — Higher education, legal training, and reentry services

- Supported education and reentry services reaching more than a dozen incarcerated learners and approximately 50 returning citizens; assisted intake and reentry processes, fulfilled research requests, and served as a frequent first-line procedural resource.
- Coordinated three end-to-end paralegal final-exam administrations—two for a 15-person cohort and one makeup—partnering with faculty on preparation, proctoring, secure transmission, and issue resolution.
- Inventoried and reorganized three workspaces, structuring location and quantity data for thousands of supply items to identify shortages and duplication and inform purchasing decisions.
- Conducted three mock employment interviews, created a shared tracker of vetted paralegal openings, helped onboard one intern, and documented front-desk procedures to improve coverage continuity.

CARMICHAEL FOR WARD 5 COUNCIL | Washington, D.C.

Deputy Campaign Manager | Feb – Jun 2026 — Grassroots campaign for D.C. Council

- Managed 10+ volunteers across canvassing, phone banking, and community events for a campaign that earned 2,723 votes; coordinated field operations, logistics, and deadlines.
- Represented the candidate at 10+ public events and drafted briefings, outreach materials, and messaging that translated constituent concerns into campaign priorities.

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY, DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT | Washington, D.C.

Graduate Teaching Assistant | Aug 2025 – May 2026

- Led weekly discussion sections for approximately 40 students across U.S. politics and international relations; created slides and review guides, graded written work, and managed concurrent course deadlines.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN, DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT | Austin, TX

Political Research Assistant | Jun – Aug 2024 — Electoral legitimacy research project

- Built and quality-checked a dataset spanning hundreds of federal and gubernatorial races (2000–2024), compiling candidate results, vote margins, party, and incumbency.
- Coded approximately 100 victory and concession statements for democratic-norm language, recounts, and litigation context while meeting weekly deadlines.

SELECTED RESEARCH

- Capstone — Wrote a 59-page study of reentry governance using nine recorded interviews, 15 field journals, participant observation, and document analysis; developed a three-regime framework and implementation recommendations.
- Quantitative Analysis — Built a 50-state OLS model in Stata using 2021 labor, wage, health, education, demographic, and cannabis-policy data; treated findings as exploratory rather than causal.
- Survey Design — Developed a three-arm randomized experiment proposal on racial-identity activation among multiracial adults, specifying a proposed 1,200-person sample, measures, and analysis plan.
